STRANGE CONTROLLERS SHOWCASE

On Sunday morning we'll be trying out all sorts of strange and experimental controllers – some of them the culmination of years of research, some of them cobbled together whatever the designer could find in their back yard. There'll be virtual reality experiments, a yoga ball, magnets, voice controls, bar codes and more.

DAILY INTERVIEWS

Jordan Erica Webber and Keith Stuart interview game designers

For an hour each day, Guardian game journalists Keith Stuart and Jordan Erica Webber will interview designers who are showing their work at the festival, chatting about the games themselves, the design process, other work at the festival, and anything else that takes their fancy.

3pm – 6pm – In the Hall

GAME WORKSHOPS

The afternoon brings us a chance to get making – crafting board game pieces, building 3D landscapes, trying out new game-making tools, drawing together and tearing up rulesets to create new ones.
